

According to Florida law, notaries are not allowed to make certified copies or attest to Vital or Public Records. It must be done by the county of the Clerks office. Some of the documents include:

- Arrests & Warrants
- Criminal Records
- Driving Violations
- Police Records
- Sheriff Records
- Inmate Records
- Felonies & Misdemeanors
- Probation Records
- Parole Records
- Bankruptcies
- Tax & Property Liens
- Civil Judgments
- Marriages & Divorces
- Birth Records
- Death Records
- Property Records
- Personal Assets
- Business Ownership
- Professional Licenses
- Political Contributions
- Unclaimed State Funds
- Relatives & Associates
- Address Registrations
- Affiliated Phone Numbers
- Affiliated Email Addresses

